Refund

Case #:

For Spring 2024, I paid an enrollment $100 deposit as well as $200 housing deposit prior to the deadline. The payment was for orientation & housing application that had no deadline except that it had to be completed by December 2023. The cancellation had to be done by December 2023, which I did. The semester starts January 2024, and I filed a google survey cancelling my housing as well as notified them by calling & emailing as I was unable to do it manually on my end. There was an unresolved technical glitch that wouldn't let me manually cancel my housing. I cancelled my housing giving them reasons that are valid before the deadline, so I received a $300 refund.
